Proudly the note of the trumpet is sounding
 Loudly the warcries arise on the gale
 Fleetly the steed by Lough Swilly is bounding
 To join the thick squadrons on Saimiers green vale!
 On every mountaineer! Stranger to flight or fear!
 Rush to the standard of dauntless Red Hugh!
 Bonnaught and Gallowglass, throng from each mountain pass!
 Onward for Erin! O'Donnell abu!

Princely O'Neill to our aid is advancing
 With many a chieftain and warrior clan!
 A thousand proud steeds in his vanguard are prancing
 Neath the Borderers brave from the banks of the Bann!
 Many a heart shall quail under its coat of mail,
 Deeply the merciless foeman shall rue
 When on his ear shall ring, borne on the breezes wing
 TyrConnell's dread war cry O'Donnell abu!

Wildly o'er Desmond the warwolf is howling
 Fearless the eagle sweeps over the plain
 The fox in the streets of the city is prowling
 And all who would conquer them are banished, or slain!
 On with O'Donnell then! Fight the good fight again!
 Sons of TyrConnell are valiant and true!
 Make the proud Saxon feel Erin's avenging steel!
 Strike! For your Country! O'Donnell abu!

This tune originated in England as a song mocking Americans, who adopted it as a military march to taunt the British soldiers during the Revolution. Some versions of the tune are much older than the Revolutionary era song. The parts are often repeated in instrumental versions, but usually not for the song. It's also in some old collections in jig time, often as Kitty Fisher's Jig.
