4. The day it is approaching when we were to be married,
But it's rather I would die than live only to grieve.
Oh, meet me my darling ere the sun sets o'er the barley,
And I'll meet you there, on the road to Drumslieve.

5. Bridget O'Malley, you've left my heart shaken
With a hopeless desolation, I'll have you to know.
It's the wonders of adoration you're quiet face has taken,
And your beauty will haunt me, wherever I go.

Words & music by Tommy Makem

"What did I have?" said the fine old woman,
"What did I have?" this fine old woman did say,
"I had four green field, and each one was a jewel,
But strangers came and tried to take them from me.
I had fine strong sons who fought to save my jewels,
They fought and died, and that was my grief" said she.

"Long time ago" said the fine old woman,
"Long time ago" this fine old woman did say,
"There was war and death, plundering and pillage,
My children starved by mountain, valley and sea,
And their wailing cries, they shook the very heavens.
My four green fields ran red with their blood" said she.

What have I now" said the fine old woman,
What have I now" this fine old woman did say,
"I have four green fields, and one of them's in bondage,
In strangers' hands who came and took it from me.
But my sons have sons as brave as were their fathers.
My four green fields will bloom once again" said she.

Here they stand hand in hand
they've exchanged wedding bands
Today is the day of their dreams and their plans,
and all we who love them just wanted to say.
May God bless this couple who married today

In good times and bad times in sickness and health may they know that riches are not needed for wealth and help them face problems they'll meet on their way
Oh god bless this couple who married today

May they find peace of mind comes to all who are kind
May the rough times ahead become triumphs in time
May their children be happy each day
Oh God bless this family who started today

As they go may they know every love that was shown
And as life it gets shorter may their feelings grow
Wherever they travel wherever they stay
May God bless this couple who married today

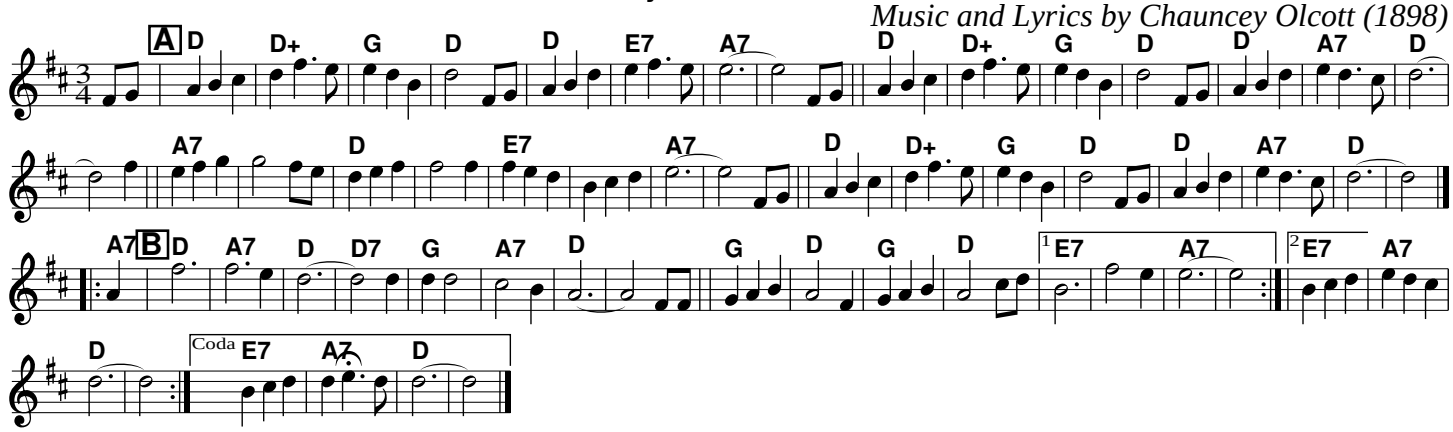
98. My Wild Irish Rose

Music and Lyrics by Chauncey Olcott (1898)



If you listen, I'll sing you a sweet little song
Of a flower that's now drooped and dead,
Yet dearer to me, yes, than all of its mates,
Tho' each holds aloft its proud head.
T'was given to me by a girl that I know;
Since we've met, faith, I've no repose.
She is dearer by far than the world's brightest star
And I call her my Wild Irish Rose.

My Wild Irish Rose, The sweetest flow'r that grows.
You may search ev'ry where, but none can compare with my Wild Irish Rose.
My Wild Irish Rose, The dearest flow'r that grows
And some day for my sake, she may let me take the bloom from my wild Irish Rose.

They may sing of their roses which, by other names,
Would smell just as sweetly, they say,
But I know that my Rose would never consent
To have that sweet name taken away.
Her glances are shy when e'er I pass by
The bower, where my true love grows;
And my one wish has been that some day I may win
The heart of my wild Irish Rose.

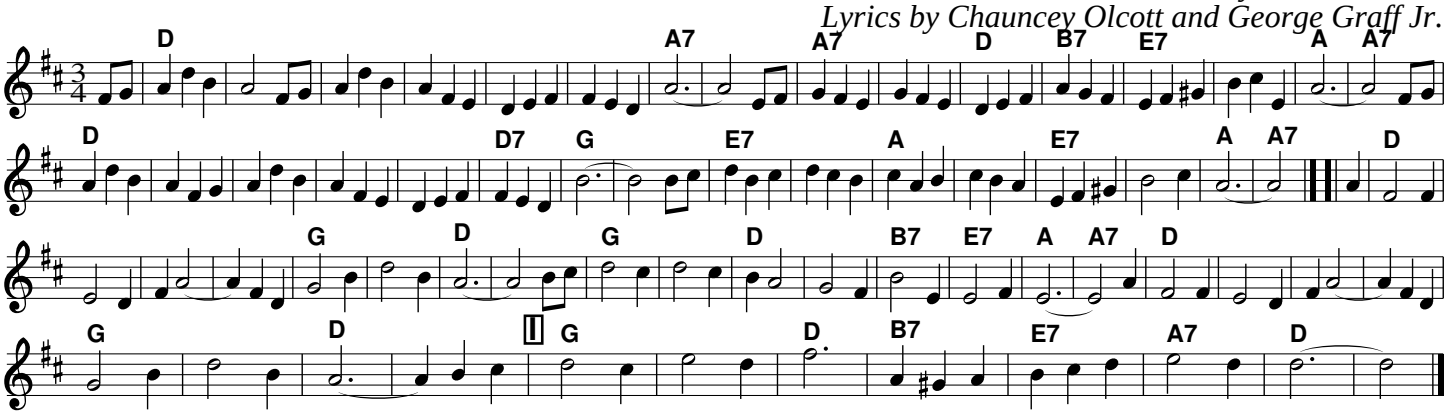
154. When Irish Eyes Are Smiling

Music by Ernest R. Ball
Lyrics by Chauncey Olcott and George Graff Jr.



There's a tear in your eye,
and I'm wondering why,
For it never should be there at all.
With such power in your smile,
sure a stone you'd beguile,
So there's never a teardrop should fall.
When your sweet lilting laughter's like some fairy song,
And your eyes twinkle bright as can be,
You should laugh all the while and all other times smile,
And now smile a smile for me.

Chorus:
When Irish eyes are smiling
Sure it's like a morning spring.
In the lilt of Irish laughter,
You can hear the angels sing.
When Irish hearts are happy,
All the world seems bright and gay.
And when Irish eyes are smiling,
Sure, they steal your heart away.

For your smile is a part Of the love in your heart,
And it makes even sunshine more bright.
Like the linnet's sweet song, Crooning all the day long,
Comes your laughter and light.
For the springtime of life Is the sweetest of all
There is ne'er a real care or regret;
And while springtime is ours Throughout all of youth's hours,
Let us smile each chance we get.
