

Singable Yiddish translation

Ya Got Your Health

A little sun, a little shower,
A quiet place to rest an hour,
Ya got your health; everything's alright.

A shoe a sock, my clothes aint wretched,
With 3 or 4 coins in my pocket,
Ya got your health; everything's alright.

The air is free equally for us all,
The sun, it shines for for everybody
Be they rich or poor

A little joy a little laughing,
Some time with friends
& shnapps for drinking,
Ya got your health; everything's alright.
(fine)

This one looks for riches,
This one has big britches,
They all wanna rule the world,

They all think that all one's luck
Depends on silver & gold.

They're all out to find it,
They're all out to get it,
& i'm thinking to myself:
What good is all that stuff to me;
If i ain't got my health!
