Running to Mull - The story behind this tune is one of complacency, personal failure, fear, sweat, running, hitch-hiking, more running, prayer, more hitch-hiking, running, a nervous boat journey, the approaching of strangers, sweat, a pint of Guinness, a second boat journey (this time one of incredible elation), a richly deserved insult, another car journey and finally the Peatbog Faeries gig I was attempting to get myself to which was in the Mishnish Hotel, Tobermory on the Island of Mull.

This is the condensed version. There aren't enough pages for available for the full story.
